

We are pleased to send you Georgia Law's 2005-2006 Annual Report, which combines the dean's annual newsletter with the school's annual donor report. As you read through these pages, you will learn about our past year's activities and accomplishments as well as the generous financial support we received from alumni and friends. We are grateful to have the opportunity to recognize and to publicly thank each year the many alumni and friends who have invested in our success.
