Dear Class of 1989,

Can you believe that it has been 20 years since we left the North Quad and the Lumpkin School of Law? We gathered together with our study groups to watch L.A. Law, China Beach and Thirtysomething and Rain Man won the Oscar for the Best Movie of the Year. We danced to George Michael and read the Joy Luck Club by Amy Tan. Politically, the main event was the inauguration of George H. W. Bush as our President. Oh, the good old days!

Regardless of where you are and what path you have taken, please make plans to join us in Athens the weekend of November 6 and 7 to celebrate our accomplishments, just to get together, catch up, have fun and watch the Dawgs as they take on Tennessee Tech for Homecoming.

On Friday night there will be a cocktail buffet by candlelight on the quad in front of the law school from 6:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Bring your photographs from law school and other memorabilia you can scrounge up. Also, don't forget photos of the family! We can head downtown afterwards to see what restaurant and bars are no longer where we left them and see what is new and exciting!

Saturday is game day and the law school's 19th annual Homecoming BBQ will be held on the North campus quad in front of the law school before the game. The law school has a limited number of football tickets for sale just to reunion classes so that we can head down the hill to cheer on the Dawgs inside Sanford Stadium! On Saturday night, for those remaining in town, we can meet informally at 8:00 p.m. at The Globe for one more evening of catching up.

The law school's alumni office will coordinate registration. The enclosed materials will provide you with more information. Please register by Oct. 30, 2009, so that we will have an accurate headcount for the caterers. If you will complete the attached information form and return it with your registration, we can compile an updated directory for our class.

Make your hotel reservations NOW! Hotel rooms are scarce in Athens on game weekends. The law school has reserved rooms all over town but reservations are strictly first-come, first served. A list of hotels where the law school has room blocks is printed on the second page of the attached reunion schedule of activities.

We look forward to a weekend of reminiscences, conviviality and fun. Please join us and be sure to get all of your close friends to attend. It will be a blast to see everyone.
