ABOUT THE COVER: To meet the challenges of preparing tomorrow's lawyers for an increasingly global society, Georgia Law has expanded its study and work abroad opportunities. Two programs debuted in 2006 – a spring program in Oxford, England, and a summer program in Beijing and Shanghai, China – that complement the school's International Externship Program and the Brussels Seminar on the Law and Institutions of the European Union, among others. Many of these international offerings emanate from the law school's Dean Rusk Center - International, Comparative and Graduate Legal Studies.
