

Joseph Henry Lumpkin Society

The School of Law is pleased to honor its annual contributors of $1,000 or more with membership in the Joseph Henry Lumpkin Society and greatly appreciates the commitment of these individuals to the continuous advancement of the quality of the law school. In 2011-2012, 450 generous alumni and friends were members of the Joseph Henry Lumpkin Society.

Joseph Henry Lumpkin founded the University of Georgia School of Law in 1859, in collaboration with his son-in-law, Thomas R.R. Cobb, and colleague William Hope Hull. Classes were first taught in Lumpkin's law office at the corner of Prince Avenue and Pulaski Street in downtown Athens at what was then the Lumpkin Law School.

Lumpkin, born in Oglethorpe County in 1799, was a distinguished lawyer and statesman and a major figure in Georgia public affairs. He graduated from Princeton in 1819, then "read law" under the tutelage of a practicing attorney, as was the custom of the day. Lumpkin was admitted to the Georgia bar in 1820. In 1824, he was elected to a two-year term in the Georgia legislature and, in 1833, he helped frame the state penal code. In 1845, Lumpkin became the first chief justice of the Georgia Supreme Court, where he served continuously until his death in 1867.

Join the Lumpkin Society and help sustain excellence at your law school. Please make your gift of $1,000 or more to the School of Law by June 20, 2013, and encourage several of your classmates and colleagues to follow your lead. With our 2012-2013 Joseph Henry Lumpkin Society membership, we can safeguard our position among the nation's finest law schools.

Graduates on Giving

New Lumpkin Society Member

"I knew Georgia Law was a special place the minute I spoke with the Admissions Office. I was on leave from the Army, living in Germany and missed my acceptance letter telling me to send in my deposit. When I called the first thing I heard was 'Honey, you have a place here with us; you just send that check when you can.' I was hooked. Little did I know that from that point onward, the faculty and staff would give me and my classmates all the tools necessary to be successful at the practice of law, including, an externship with then-Clarke County Superior Court Judge, now U.S. Federal District Court Judge, Steve Jones. One classmate clerked for a U.S. Supreme Court Justice, one is a law professor, and another a Georgia Supreme Court Justice. The law school's national and international track record of success speaks for itself. I give back to honor my experience and to support those who will follow me."

Reginald M. "Reggie" Jones (J.D.'99)
