

COMMITTED TO EXCELLENCE

The School of Law continues to receive national recognition for the quality of education its students receive and how that translates into success after graduation.

OVERALL

87.5%

The July 2016 state bar exam passage rate for first-time test takers from Georgia Law, giving the school the highest passage rate for the third straight year.

30th

U.S. News & World Report 2017/18

ADVOCACY

12th

Best Schools for Moot Court –
The National Jurist 2017

21st

Strength in trial advocacy –
U.S. News & World Report 2017/18

CLERKSHIPS

22nd

Best law schools for securing federal clerkships – Business Insider 2016

19th

Federal clerkships for the Class of 2015 – The National Law Journal 2016

PUBLIC INTEREST

16th

Best Schools for Public Interest –
PreLaw Winter 2016

INTERNATIONAL LAW

18th

Strength in international law –
U.S. News & World Report 2017/18

EMPLOYMENT

Top 13

Using Class of 2016 employed-at-10-month statistics supplied to the ABA for the law schools ranked among the top 30 by U.S. News & World Report earlier this year. (Calculated using employment positions that are full-time, long-term jobs that require bar passage or are J.D.-advantage jobs.)

Top 25

Based on Class of 2015 employed-at-10-month statistics – U.S. News & World Report 2017/18

PRACTICAL TRAINING

A-

Best Schools for Practical Training – The National Jurist 2017

RETURN ON INVESTMENT

TOP 5

The School of Law was featured in The New York Times regarding the salary-to-debt ratio of its graduates.

4th

10 Law Schools Where You Can Pay Off Your Debt – U.S. News & World Report 2017

10th

Best Value Law Schools –
PreLaw Fall 2016

From leading the state in bar exam passage rates to being named among the top five law schools with the best salary-to-debt ratios after graduation in a The New York Times article, Georgia Law is committed to ensuring students receive the best possible return on investment for their legal education.