SUPERB EDUCATION AT A TOP U.S. LAW SCHOOL

In 1973, a student from Brussels, Belgium, became the first foreign-trained lawyer to earn a Master of Laws, or LL.M., degree at the University of Georgia School of Law. In the ensuing four decades, Georgia Law and its Dean Rusk International Law Center have produced more than 500 LL.M. graduates, with ties to 75 countries and every continent on the planet.

Our LL.M.s include judges and law firm partners, leaders in governments and in intergovernmental and nongovernmental organizations, CEOs and heads of corporate legal departments, and university professors and administrators. They form a valued part of a vast network of more than 10,500 University of Georgia School of Law alumni and alumnae. We welcome you to join this tradition of global practice preparation.

STUDENT LIFE IN A VIBRANT LOCALE

The main campus of the University of Georgia School of Law is in Athens, a 213-year-old town and quintessential American university locale. Trees and centuries-old buildings dot its hilly terrain. Known as the “Classic City,” Athens enjoys a mild climate, diverse population, and affordable cost of living. Its downtown features unique shops, restaurants, and live music, and surrounding neighborhoods offer a variety of housing, schools, and retail centers.

At the heart of Athens is the University of Georgia campus, home to 38,000 students and a full complement of research units. The law school is located in two buildings on historic North Campus—close to downtown, the Main Library, university bookstore, international student resources, fitness centers, and Sanford Stadium.

About 70 miles from Athens is Georgia’s state-capital, Atlanta, one of the United States’ premier hubs for culture and global commerce. Atlanta is home to nearly 5.9 million people, to a burgeoning film industry, and to many law firms and Fortune 500 corporations.
