Delivery Requests
Request delivery of books, print-outs of articles, etc. by submitting a request to the Faculty Services Librarian. The Main and Science Libraries also deliver resources to faculty members.

Classroom Support

Presentations
The Reference Librarians are available for presentations on research resources and methodology, targeted to the subject of your class.

Clickers
The Law Library can provide training and access to student response systems (clickers). Please contact the Faculty Services Librarian if you need further information on this classroom tool.

Course Reserve
Make sure resources are available for your students by placing them on Course Reserve. The list of materials currently on Course Reserve can be accessed through GAVEL.

Plagiarism
The Law Library has plagiarism detection software that can be used to assist faculty members in revealing instances of alleged plagiarism.

Online Exams Collections
While the Law Library no longer collects paper copies of old exams, the Library can upload PDFs of past exams electronically through GAVEL.

Classroom Technology
A dedicated instructional technology specialist (JoEllen Childers joellen@uga.edu) is available to assist you in learning to operate the classroom technology.

E-Course Management
The Law Library provides support for TWEN (Westlaw) and Lexis Nexis Web Courses.

Research Assistant Training
The Law Library offers training sessions for your research assistants at the beginning of each semester or by request.

Publication of Scholarship

ExpressO/Scholastica
The law school has institutional accounts with ExpressO and Scholastica, online services that facilitate submissions to law reviews. You may obtain a password by going to the ExpressO or Scholastica websites and clicking on Signup.

SSRN
Contact the Faculty Services Librarian for assistance in loading items into your SSRN account.

Digital Commons
Digital Commons@Georgia Law is the Law School’s institutional repository. The service captures the intellectual output of the Law School, preserves its institutional history, and enhances the access to faculty members’ publications. All faculty scholarship is uploaded into Digital Commons after the applicable copyright permissions are obtained.

Facility Bibliographies
The Law Library updates the online bibliographies as new items are published. Contact the Faculty Services Librarian to make changes to your online bibliography.

Contact Us
Please do not hesitate to contact the Law Library for any of your information needs.
