

Using the University of Georgia School of Law Mentorship website – a guide for students

1. Visit <https://sites.google.com/site/ugalawmentorship/>

Here you'll find links to mentor resources and a link to your mentorship group.

(You should have received an email from Alex Sklut regarding the mentorship site. Please make sure you are logged in to the google account associated with the email address that received it. If you need to create a new google account, follow this documentation:

<http://www.law.uga.edu/sites/default/files/create-google-account.pdf>)

The screenshot shows the top of the website with the School of Law logo and navigation links. Below is a section titled "The University of Georgia School of Law Mentorship Program" with a brief description. Under "Mentor Resources", there are two links. Under "Mentorship Group(s)", a Google Apps Script permission dialog box is displayed, asking for permission to access data on Google. The "REVIEW PERMISSIONS" button is circled in red.
