

EXAMINATION SCHEDULE
FALL SEMESTER, 2011

In a change from past practice, this semester, all students who are handwriting their exams during any particular time slot will be doing so in a single room. Thus, e.g., on the morning of November 29, Con Law I and Int'l I students who are handwriting their exams will all be in Room E.

Relatedly, in another change from past practice, a good number of final exams will not be given in the classroom where the course was given. Thus, pay particular attention to the room in which the exam will be administered.

Indicates room for handwriters.

*These exams will not be using computers.
