ACADEMIC AND ADMINISTRATIVE APPOINTMENTS

Dean, University of Georgia School of Law

January 1, 2015 to December 31, 2024

Successfully oversaw the Law School’s portion of the University’s Comprehensive Campaign, setting multiple fundraising records, raising over $90 million, and establishing an enduring 350% increase in the three-year trailing average for fiscal year commitments

Created 90 new endowed and non-endowed scholarship funds, including Distinguished Law Fellows Program (full-tuition plus scholarships for future legal leaders) and programs providing financial assistance to 100% of first-generation college graduates and veterans

Led the development and execution of the Law School's Strategic Plan to position the school as the nation's best return on investment in legal education

Reduced aggregate student indebtedness by more than 50% over 10 years

Posted the nation's #1 job placement rate for high-value jobs for the Class of 2021

Posted the State's top bar-passage rate for first-time takers for 11 straight years

Launched Emerging Scholars program to expand pipelines into the legal academy

Created four new externally funded clinics (Veterans, First Amendment, Child Sexual Abuse, Canine Welfare) and secured external funding for two existing ones (domestic violence and Medical Legal Partnership)

Secured rating as the nation's #1 Best Value in Legal Education for five of the past seven years

Developed and introduced several new curricular programs including an undergraduate minor, a 3 +3 BA/JD program, and 3-year JD/MBA and JD/MAcc degrees

Developed and implemented the Georgia Honors Fellow program to build a pipeline of lawyers to serve legally underserved parts of Georgia

Created a mentorship program matching each incoming student with an alum, faculty member, career advisor and fellow student

Achieved and defended the highest U.S. News ranking in history (#20 overall; #7 public)
