

Honor Roll 2012-2013

The Honor Roll recognizes gifts to all of the various funds that support the University of Georgia School of Law. It includes all private donations between July 1, 2012, and June 30, 2013, from alumni, firms, foundations, corporations, organizations, estates, other individuals, and Georgia Law faculty and staff. Gifts are listed by the following categories:

Joseph Henry Lumpkin Society Benefactors	Donors of $10,000 or more
Joseph Henry Lumpkin Society Fellows	Donors of $5,000 to $9,999
Joseph Henry Lumpkin Society Partners	Donors of $2,500 to $4,999
Joseph Henry Lumpkin Society Associates	Donors of $1,000 to $2,499
Dean's Council	Donors of $500 to $999
Law School Advocates	Donors of $250 to $499
Law School Supporters	Donors of $100 to $249
Law School Friends	Donors of less than $100

Alumni Gifts

Alumni are listed by class year and, within the class year, by giving level. Each class list is prefaced by the number of alumni donors, percentage of class participation and amount of the overall class donation. Where only one class member participated, the specific gift amount is not disclosed. Numbers in parentheses denote the years of consecutive giving to Georgia Law.

"The three years I spent at the UGA School of Law were three of the hardest, and most enjoyable, years of my life. More importantly, each time I hear of a fellow graduate's accomplishments, I am more and more proud of my time there. By continuing to support the law school, I get to play some small part in all of the accomplishments to come."

"My three years at the UGA School of Law were undeniably the most important and energizing years of my adult life. Despite being a 'Yankee' I felt welcomed and at home shortly after my arrival in Athens. There is nothing like being a 1L, and facing the daily challenges with a group of smart, interesting, and dedicated people. The loss of my classmate and good friend Anne Dupre, one of the few truly remarkable people I have known, inspired me to step up my contributions to the law school. I could not think of a better way than donating to her scholarship fund. I am proud to carry the UGA torch back home in Michigan."

"Like anyone, I can identify a handful of individuals who have impacted my life in a positive and meaningful way, along with several institutions. But the University of Georgia School of Law alone has provided me with the tools which enable me to engage in the most noble of professions, the practice of law. Because I have been blessed with a measure of success in my chosen field, I annually contribute to the institution which made it all possible. How could I do otherwise? While some sense of gratitude motivates me, I am also moved by the belief that our law school needs to succeed in uncertain economic times. Most of the individuals who made me what I am have gone on, but the University of Georgia School of Law continues, more vibrant than ever, and with the continued help of its graduates will flourish in the future."

"My business career, from partner in a large international law firm to president of a large public company to co-founder of an entrepreneurial investment company, has been a little unusual for a law school graduate. Without a doubt, the University of Georgia School of Law provided me with the foundation, education and confidence to successfully enjoy such a varied post-education career. Contributing back to my law school will help other law students pursue their own unique career paths as well."

"When I graduated from college in 1973, the business world expected 'girls' to be secretaries. Georgia Law gave me the opportunity to exceed this expectation. The law school gave me scholarships my second and third years. More important, my law degree gave me credibility and a path forward at a time when women rarely were taken seriously in the business world. It was the basis of my success. This is why I have donated to the Law School Fund for more than 30 years. How could I not give back to the institution that gave me such a good start?"

"Thank you to the supporters of the Law School Fund. This scholarship has helped me with funding my legal education. I was inspired to attend law school by attorneys who practice in the county where I was raised - Habersham County. Attorneys have an influence on the lives of their clients and their adversaries. Law is a profession deserving of respect, and I plan to make a positive difference in the lives of people with whom I have the opportunity to work. I am currently a participant in the Prosecutorial Clinic at Georgia Law. I believe access to the justice system is essential to equality and differentiates our legal system from the rest of the world. Graduating from Georgia Law will empower me in being amongst the well-educated new attorneys in the state."

"The numerous opportunities I had while at Georgia Law—in the classroom, with professors and student colleagues, and with the broader legal community—were invaluable in shaping my career. As our world changes and becomes more globally integrated, it is essential that those who follow us are offered even richer experiences. I give to help Georgia Law continue to provide excellent legal education and training to a diverse student body that will contribute to our state, nation, and the global community."

Law School Fund Scholar

"I have been a teacher for the past ten years and during that time I developed an interest in law. That interest derived, in part, from recognizing the varied needs of my students and from reflecting on ways that I could help people like them. I was, of course, concerned about the cost of going back to school and was uncertain about how I would be able to manage it. Your generosity in providing funds that led to this scholarship has made it possible for me to attend Georgia Law. I want to express my gratitude. I do not take for granted the value of this gift and I absolutely intend to make the most of it."

"The education I received and friendships I developed at UGA law school have enhanced my professional career and personal life. It is our responsibility to provide others with similar opportunities and also to support our legal system by attracting the best students and making them the best lawyers. We need and are often called upon to give back—to church, community, educational and professional endeavors. I believe giving to Georgia Law meets several of our obligations and should be a top priority. The law school needs the financial support of its graduates to succeed in its mission."

"At the urging of a college professor/mentor who told me a law school education would prepare me for any career path I might choose, I applied to the University of Georgia School of Law without knowing I would practice law. My mentor was right. The quality law school education I received provided me with the foundation for a successful legal career and, more recently, for a foray into the world of professional sports as an NFL player agent. I remain grateful for the education I received and the friendships I developed during law school, and it is my pleasure to give back to Georgia Law as a small token of my appreciation."

"As I reflect on my career, I appreciate that the UGA School of Law opened the door for me to pursue my dream. The law school provided me with the foundation, confidence, network and knowledge to practice law the way I envisioned. I was taught not only about law, but about ethics, professionalism and responsibility. My contribution at the Joseph Henry Lumpkin level is a thank you to the law school for what it has done for me and an investment in the continuing success of the law school. "I cannot believe my third year of law school has arrived so quickly. Each year has been challenging and immensely rewarding. I have been fortunate to attend my top choice of law schools and, in large part, I have the Law School Fund supporters to thank for that. Thank you for ensuring that students like me are able to enjoy and benefit from the education provided by the University of Georgia School of Law. It has prepared me for a career in law and has equipped me with the tools to be excellent. After graduation, I have an opportunity to work with a firm in South Georgia, and I could not be more thrilled. Thank you for helping to make so many of my dreams possible. "The longer I have been away from Georgia Law, the more I have come to appreciate the value of the education I received. The continued rise of Georgia Law into the upper ranks of law schools nationally, and the resulting value we as graduates receive from our Georgia Law degree, is made possible in large part by the giving of alumni. As a result, this year I decided to increase my support of the law school to the Joseph Henry Lumpkin Society level. I am proud and happy to be a consistent financial supporter of the University of Georgia School of Law."

"The generous donations to the Law School Fund have enabled me to pursue my legal education at a wonderful school. For that, I cannot thank you enough. I chose the study of law after spending six years in the workforce as a contract manager for a lumber and construction company. I believe that studying law at Georgia Law will allow me to build on the foundation I created while in the private sector and to expand my career. I selected Georgia Law due to the opportunities provided by the school, not only on campus but also the extensive alumni network and the outstanding reputation of Georgia Law and its graduates. Thank you again for enabling me to become a part of this magnificent network."

"I increased my support to the Joseph Henry Lumpkin Society level this year in honor of the retirement of our friend and mentor, Associate Dean Paul Kurtz. Professor Kurtz served as the faculty advisor to the Moot Court program when we competed for a national championship in 1979, and he supported the expansion of that program which enabled more of our classmates to represent Georgia Law in competitions around the country in 1980. The subsequent success of the program has been extraordinary. Dean Kurtz will be missed but never forgotten."

"Walking through the law school of my undergraduate institution in Seattle, I stopped to notice a wall recognizing financial contributors. Some well-known names included Bill Gates, Paul Allen, and Howard Shultz, but there were also hundreds of donors whom I have never heard of. I stopped to contemplate what personal stories each of these contributors had that compelled them to be so generous. I wish I could reach out to each of you that support the Law School Fund to personally thank you for your contribution, and I realize that a thank you can come in the form of giving back to the legal community once I graduate. Generous contributors such as you made Georgia Law what it is today and I couldn't be happier with my decision to come here all the way from Seattle."

"Thank you for making a legal education possible for me. I have wanted to alleviate the despair of others and be a 'problem-solver' as a lawyer ever since a family law attorney helped my mother pro-bono when we couldn't afford legal work, but couldn't afford not to have it. Furthermore, as a Floridian, I knew Georgia Law was my goal but felt it was financially unobtainable. Scholarships helped me become a first generation college graduate—but I felt I had run out of luck and had to abandon my career goals. I do not have a family of lawyers, and no roster spot on a law firm awaits me. So I thank you not only for the financial aid that makes this possible, but for your confidence that I will be a good investment for Georgia Law. A simple 'thank you' doesn't convey how grateful I am for your support; however, I assure you I will work diligently to prove you right."

"Growing up in a family of lawyers, I have always had some sense that I wanted to pursue a legal career. My undergraduate studies at Washington & Lee and summer legal internships made me decide that law school was the right path for me. As a third generation Georgia Law student, I am so excited to be in Athens. I know Georgia Law will provide every opportunity I can imagine and more. Thank you for assisting my legal education through the Law School Fund. Your support means a great deal to me."

"I would like to take this opportunity to thank the supporters of the Law School Fund for providing the funding for the scholarship which brought me to Georgia Law. Many of my friends attend other law schools, and none have found one with the academic and clinical opportunities (and more importantly, the sense of community) which I enjoy at Georgia. Additionally, I plan to take advantage of Georgia Law's D.C. semester in practice program and I know that my education at Georgia Law will build a great foundation for my career. I cannot thank you enough for making this education a possibility for me. I will always be thankful."

"One of the reasons I selected Georgia Law was its affordability when compared to other schools of its caliber. I know that Georgia Law has prepared me for my future legal career. Thanks to the wonderful professors and career services office here, I can look forward to a federal district clerkship and then to joining an Atlanta law firm. Thank you for your contribution to the Law School Fund that supports an education that has served me so well and that will continue to serve me for years to come."

"I would like to express my gratitude for your generosity that has enabled me to attend law school here at the University of Georgia. Without this scholarship I would have been unable to attend. Georgia Law was my first choice throughout the application process because of its excellent academic standing, and incredible faculty, staff, and student body. I knew that Georgia Law would be a good fit for me personally for two reasons. First, I knew it would promote the interpersonal aspect of the legal field. Secondly, Georgia Law's promotion of environmental law helped bring me here because it relates directly with my career choice. As an avid fly-fisherman, outdoorsman and backpacker, I have an affinity for nature and conservations. Although I may not practice in that field—I am considering going into contract law—I would like to have some involvement in the field of environmental law later on, even if it is on a strictly pro bono basis. Again, thank you for helping me attend this incredible school. I am immensely grateful."

Jonathan Clark (Class of 2016)

The Class of 2016 possesses median academic credentials that make it one of the school's best – an undergraduate GPA of 3.69, which matches a school record, and a LSAT score of 163, which represents the top 10 percent of test takers worldwide. Statistics as of 8/15/13.
