

FROM THE LAW SCHOOL'S LEADERS

BOARD OF VISITORS

“Georgia Law continues to set the bar high in the areas of classroom engagement and thought leadership. With faculty who are among the most talented in the country, students are receiving the tools to be successful in today’s legal marketplace while learning directly from those who are actively shaping legal policy in our state and nation.”

—Kathelen V. Amos (J.D. '82),
Board of Visitors Chair

LAW SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

“Do you want to make a real and tangible impact on the next generation of legal leaders knowing your investment will have a meaningful and lasting influence? Giving your annual gift to the Law School Fund is making a direct impact on the future of the legal industry in our state and abroad.”

—J. Anderson “Andy” Davis (J.D. '84),
Law School Association President

YOUNG ALUMNI/ALUMNAE COMMITTEE

“My time at Georgia Law was marked by the formation of incredible relationships. These relationships with peers, professors, staff and alumni have given me the competitive edge to launch into my career. Because of the personal investment others made in me while I was a student, as well as the continued support I have received since graduating, I count it an honor to give back and support my alma mater.”

—Catherine H. Curlet (J.D. '11), Young
Alumni/Alumnae Committee President
