American Society of International Law Career Mentoring Program

Time: 3:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Location: 1 Coca Cola Plaza, NW, Atlanta, GA

As part of the American Society of International Law upcoming Midyear Meeting and Research Forum in Atlanta and Athens, GA, October 19-21, 2012, ASIL is hosting a career mentoring program. Geared to students and new professionals interested in learning more about various international law career paths, the event will offer interaction with experienced public and private international legal professionals. The program is designed as a "speed-mentoring" event, during which participants will be able to circulate among small group discussions with practicing lawyers. Work in multinational firms, NGOs, U.S.

government agencies, international organizations, and multinational corporations will be explored.

To attend just the Career Mentoring Program OR the entire ASIL Midyear Meeting and Research Forum for FREE, refer to the e-mail sent to law students earlier with the code for ASIL Academic Partner schools, or contact Beth Shackleford, Director of Student Professional Development.

Note: Because Georgia Law School is an ASIL Academic Partner, Georgia Law students' registration fees are free for both the Career Mentoring Program and the entire Midyear Meeting and Research Forum.
